

Code of Conduct

We run a strict 'no dickheads, no divas' policy at our events. Please be courteous to one another, our staff, and our beloved cats. We pride ourselves on creating a safe space for everyone and we take any transgressions very seriously. If you feel your rights or someone else's rights have been violated please let us know by emailing hello@scarystrangers.com

Please note that we are inviting you into our home and we expect you to treat the space with respect. Anyone who is disrespectful will be asked to leave, without refund.

Be punctual. The studio will open 15 minutes prior to the start of class to give all participants enough time to meet one another and get comfortable in the space.

If you are running late, please message Tom on 0411847558 as soon as possible.

Please wear comfortable clothing that allows you to move around easily, and bring a water bottle.

Unfortunately the Scary Strangers studio is not a built-for-purpose venue and does not have accessibility features. The bathroom is on the third floor of the house. Please bear this in mind before purchasing a ticket.

Terms and Conditions

You consent to being photographed and filmed as part of the event and for that material to be shared on Scary Strangers' and Ru Halwala's public social channels and promotional material.

Scary Strangers is a home studio and while we have undertaken as many possible measures to ensure your safety, sometimes accidents happen. By submitting this form you recognise that you are entering the premises and participating in the program at your own risk. You release Scary Strangers from any and all claims and liabilities which may arise directly or indirectly in connection with your participation in the program.
